INDEX

Accidents, motor vehicle, 10
ADAMS, GEORGE M., ROBERT C. KING, and G. LLOYD WILSON, The Freight Container as a Contribution to Efficiency in Transportation, 27–36
Advertising, streamlining as a means of, 19
See also Marketing Railroad Passenger Services
Arrillaga, Francisco de, 193
Atterbury, W. W., 83

Baldwin, L. W., 83
Baruch, Bernard M., 83
BEATTY, E. W., The Question of Railway Unification, 164–168; 158
BEYER, OTTO S., Unemployment Compensation in the Transportation Industry, 95–105
BOHMAN, RAYNARD F., Government Ownership of Railroads as Affecting Shippers, 126–132
Bonbright, James C., quoted, 57–58
Borsuch, R. B., 195
Branan, José, 194
BRITTON, ROY F., Highway Taxation: Present Status and Probable Future Trends, 79–87
Budd, Ralph, 83
Burdick, E. Douglass and Marian P., 184
Bustamante, Anastasio, 193
Byrd, Richard E., 5

Cabrera, Mariano, 201
Camacho, Sebastian, 194
CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS—PRESENT CONDITION AND FUTURE OUTLOOK, S. J. Hungerford, 159–163
Cardenas, Lazaro, 203
Carranza, Venustiano, 200
CASE FOR PRIVATE OWNERSHIP AND OPERATION OF RAILROADS IN THE UNITED STATES, THE, J. J. Pelley, 120–125
City streets, see Highways
Competition in transportation: advantages of, 112, 129
  and discrimination, 62–63
  eliminated by government ownership, 112, 129
  of government with private enterprise, in Canada, 153–154 recent transformation of, 57–58
  versus monopoly, 14
  See also Competitors of railroads Competitors of railroads: airplanes, 17
  as affecting short line railroads, 70 inland waterways, 12–13
    in France, 187
  motor transport, 8–12, 72–78
    in Canada, 162–163
    in France, 187–188
    in Great Britain, 172
    in Mexico, 205–206
  per capita use of, 38–39
Consolidation of railroads: as affecting employees, 95–99
  in Mexico, 197–199
  short lines included in great systems, 68–69
  See also Unification of railways
Containers, see Freight containers
Coolidge, Calvin, 83
Craven, Leslie, 146
CRITIQUE OF THE WHEELER-EASTMAN GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP PLAN, A, Henry A. Palmer, 146–150
Crosser, Robert, quoted, 53
CUÉLLAR, ALFREDO B., Railroad Problems of Mexico, 193–206
Cummins, Albert Baird, quoted, 59–60
Cunningham, William J., 83

Davis, Joseph Stancliffe, 202
De la Huerta, Adolfo, 201
DISTRIBUTION SERVICES OF THE RAILWAYS OF GREAT BRITAIN, G. Lloyd Wilson, 180–183
DUNCAN, C. S., Railways and Highways: Finance, Taxation, and Subsidy, 72–78

EASTMAN, JOSEPH B., Public Ownership and Operation of Railroads in the United States, 106–119; 55, 96, 146, 171
  quoted, 123, 143, 147–148, 149
Economic planning: and transportation, 7–15
  objectives of, 7–8
Elliott, George B., 83
Escandón, Manuel, 193
Expenditure of public moneys, see Government expenditures

Fares, railroad, 44
  reduced, in France, 190
  See also Rates; Revenue
Farley, James A., 149
Federal and state jurisdiction in regulation of motor carriers, 10–11
Federal Coördinator of Transportation: cost of maintenance of, 54 work of, 51
Flair, David Boyle, 194
Foster, John, 194
FOURNIER, LESLIE T., Present Railroad Problems in Canada, 151–158
  cited, 158
FREIGHT CONTAINER AS A CONTRIBUTION TO EFFICIENCY IN TRANSPORTATION, THE, Robert C. King, George M. Adams, and G. Lloyd Wilson, 27–36

Freight containers: advantages of, 31–32, 35–36, 174–175
as affecting distribution, 28–29
as affecting merchandising, 29 commodities shipped in, 175, 176
definition of, 27
extent of use of, 170, 175
market for national container service, 29–30 on British railways, 170, 173–179 rates for service, 32–34, 178–179
size and design of, 30–31, 173
transportation of, 173–174
types of, 27–28, 30–31, 175–178
Freight service: cost of train assembly, 24
routing of, 22–26
speed of, 16–17, 120
under government ownership, 128–129
See also Freight containers; Railroads in Great Britain—distribution services of; Rates

Gould, Jay, 197
GOVERNMENT ACQUISITION AND OPERATION OF RAILROADS IN THE UNITED STATES, Burton K. Wheeler, 142–145
Government expenditures: for highways, 9–10
for inland waterways, 13
See also Subsidies
Government ownership and operation of railroads administration under, 111–112, 116–117, 144 advantages of, 108, 117
as affecting labor, 110, 112–113, 150
as affecting security holders, 113, 124, 136, 137–138, 147
as eliminating competition, 112, 129 compared with private ownership, 121–122
in Canada, 130
cost of acquisition, 113–114, 117–118 disadvantages of, 108, 110–111, 117–119, 128–129, 130, 131–132, 146–150
Federal control in war time, 106–107, 128, 129–130
Federal Coördinator's plan for, 114–119
instances of, in United States, 129–130 method of acquisition, 115–116, 136–138, 145, 147–148 motives for, 106, 142, 144, 159–160 political interference, danger of, and safeguards against, 108–111, 129, 132, 143, 148–149 propriety of, 106, 114, 142 public sentiment regarding, 113, 126
See also Railroads in Canada; Railroads in Mexico; Wheeler bill
GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP OF RAILROADS AS AFFECTING SHIPPERS, Raynard F. Bohman, 126–132
Government regulation of railroads: controversy concerning, 142–143 cost of, 52–55
increase in, 49–50
limitation of earnings, 123–124
suggested changes in, 55–56
See also Rates
Government traffic, a loss of revenue to the railroads, 70–71, 73
in Mexico, 206
Groote, W. H. D., 194
Guanajuato, Leon, 194

Harriman, Edward H., 197
Herzog, Jesus Silva, 202
HIGHWAY TAXATION: PRESENT STATUS AND PROBABLE FUTURE TRENDS, Roy F. Britton, 79–87 Highways
compared with railways: re financing, 72–75
re taxation, 75–76
cost of construction of, 10
development of, 9, 72, 79–80
mileage of, 9, 73, 87
motorists' share of construction and maintenance of, 12, 82–85 relation of, to railways, 72
subsidization of, 77–78, 84
in Mexico, 205
types of, needed, 9–10
See also Competitors of railroads; Motor transport; Taxation
Hill, Arthur M., 83
Hill, James J., 197
Hines, Walker D., quoted, 107, 110
Holmes, Oliver Wendell, 22
Holmes, R. C., 83
Honey, Richard, 197
Hooper, Robert P., 83
Howell, Clark, 83
Huerta, Adolfo de la, 201
Humboldt, Alexander von, 193
HUNGERFORD, S. J., Canadian National Railways—Present Condition and Future Outlook, 159–163
Hunt, Frank R., quoted, 4

Ickes, Harold L., 149
Inland waterways: subsidized, 124
unprofitable, 12–13
Interstate Commerce Commission: cost of maintenance of, 54
creation of, 49
powers of, 50–51
Investment: in highways, amount of, 73
in railroads, 60–61
amount of, 72–73
control of, 64–65
Investors in railroad securities, as affected by government ownership, 113, 124, 136, 137–138, 147

Jaurez, Benito, 194

JOHNSON, EDWARD MARION, Marketing Railroad Passenger Services, 37–48

KING, ROBERT C., GEORGE M. ADAMS, and G. LLOYD WILSON, The Freight Container as a Contribution to Efficiency in Transportation, 27–36.
Knight, Bruce Winton, cited, 66

Labor, railroad
as affected by government ownership, 112–113, 150
as affected by railroad developments, 88–90 attitude of, toward government ownership, 110, 150 coöperation of, with management, 93 insecurity of, 90, 91
movement of, toward compulsory pensions, 90, 92
number of employees, 88, 131
preferred position of, 53–54, 126
total compensation of employees, 88, 131 unreasonable demands of, 126–127
See also Railroads in Canada; Railroads in Mexico; Unemployment Compensation in the Transportation Industry
La Follette, Robert M., Jr., 52
Lamont, Thomas W., 201, 202
Land grants to railroads, 70, 73
Legge, Alexander, 83
Legislation
re railroads and other carriers, 49–56, 95 promoted by railroad labor, 127
providing for short line railroads, 69–70
re unemployment compensation in the transportation industry, proposed, 99–104
See also Wheeler bill
Lerdo de Tejada, Sebastian, 194
LÉVY, PIERRE, The Railroads in France, 184–192
LEWIS, WILLIAM MATHER, The Significance of Transportation to Civilization, 1–6
Limantour, José Ives, 196, 197, 199
Lincoln, Abraham, 68
Lindbergh, Charles A., 6
Lurton, J., quoted, 22–23
Lyons, M. E., 195

Macaulay, Thomas B., quoted, 3
MARKETING RAILROAD PASSENGER SERVICES, Edward Marion Johnson, 37–48
advertising, 44–45
coördinated effort, need and equipment for, 46–47
fares, 44
marketing research, 40
sales organization and outlets, 42–44 sales promotion and publicity, 45–46 service analysis, 41–42
Martin, James W., cited, 81
Maxmilian (Ferdinand Maximilian Joseph), 194
Maxon, W. B., 194
Mergers, see Consolidation of railroads; Unification of railways
MILLER, CLARENCE A., The Problems of the Short Lines, 68–71
Montes de Oca, Luis, 201
Morgenthau, Henry, 149
Motor transport: advantages of, 14
maximum load of vehicle, 9–10
regulation of, 10–12
See also Accidents; Competitors of railroads; Highways; Taxation
Moulton, Harold G., cited, 79, 83

Natural resources of Canada, 161–162

PALMER, HENRY A., A Critique of the Wheeler-Eastman Government Ownership Plan, 146–150
Pani, Alberto J., 200, 201
Passenger service, speed of, 17–18
See also Marketing Railroad Passenger Services
PELLEY, J. J., The Case for Private Ownership and Operation of Railroads in the United States, 120–125; 83
Pereyra, Carlos, 193
Pike, General, 193
Plumb, Edward Lee, 194
Population: density, in Canada, 161 growth, retardation of, 15
of Mexico, number and composition of, 193
statistics, 1920–1935, 38
Post Office Department, cost of operation of, 121–122
Prescott, William Hickling, 2
PRESENT RAILROAD PROBLEMS IN CANADA, Leslie T. Fournier, 151–158
PRICE OF OPEN GATEWAYS, THE, John R. Turney, 22–26
Private ownership, see Government ownership
PROBLEMS OF THE SHORT LINES, THE, Clarence A. Miller, 68–71
PROPOSALS OF THE WHEELER RAILROAD OWNERSHIP AND OPERATION BILL, THE, G. Lloyd Wilson, 133–141
Public opinion regarding government ownership and operation of railroads, 113, 126
PUBLIC OWNERSHIP AND OPERATION OF RAILROADS IN THE UNITED STATES, Joseph B. Eastman, 106–119
Public ownership of railroads as distinguished from government ownership, 149–150
PURDY, HARRY L., The Regulation of Transportation Rates, 57–67

QUESTION OF RAILWAY UNIFICATION, THE, E. W. Beatty, 164–168

RAILROAD PROBLEMS OF MEXICO, Alfredo B. Cuéllar, 193–206

Railroads
compared with highways: re financing, 72–75
re taxation, 75–76
cost of investigations of, 51–53
economic importance of, 130–131
financing of, 73–75, 122–123
historical development of, 164–165
in France, 184–185
in Mexico, 193–203
improvements of, mechanical and general, 18–21, 120–121 means of improving economic condition of, 14–15
mileage of, 9, 93
prospects for, 47–48, 92–94
public policy toward, 123–125
purpose of, 165
use of motor trucks by, 14, 15
in France, 188–189
in Great Britain, 182–183
wasteful expenditures of, 108
See also Marketing Railroad Passenger Services; Railroads in Canada; Railroads in France; Railroads in Great Britain; Railroads in Mexico; Traffic, railroad; Transportation facilities
Railroads in Canada
as affected by population density and physiographical structure, 161–162 competition of government with private enterprise, 153–154 coöperative administration, results of, 157–158 cost of government operation of, 154–156
financial condition of, 130, 151, 154–156
government and private ownership compared, 130, 161
labor relations of, 163
motor competition with, 162–163
overdevelopment of, 151
political aspect of, 160
political interference with, 107, 152–153
reports of Royal Commissions concerning, 107–108, 156–157
unification of, 158
RAILROADS IN FRANCE, THE, Pierre Lévy, 184–192 agreements of, 186
competition of, with waterways and highways, 187–188
coördination of railway and automobile services, 188–189
financial condition of, 184, 186–187
historical development of, 184–185
improvements in service of, 190–191 measures to increase revenue, 190–191 measures to reduce expenditures, 191–192
mileage of, 184
number of employees of, 184
systems of, 185
traffic carried by, 184, 186, 188, 189
Railroads in Great Britain dining car service on, 171
distribution services of: country motor lorry service, 182–183 other rural transportation services, 183
railhead distribution service, 180–182
freight containers used by, 170, 173–179
highway competition with, 172
improved efficiency and service of, 169–170 mechanical improvements in, 170–171
mileage of, 169
operating expenditures of, 171
passenger traffic, trends in, 170 revenue of, 169, 170
Railroads in Mexico
agreements with International Committee of Bankers on Mexico, 201–202 compensation of employees, 200 competition of, with motor transport, 205–206 destroyed by revolution, 200
financial condition of, 200, 201, 204–205
first railroad charters issued in Mexico, 193–194 government acquisition of, 197–199 government contracts issued, 195–196
inauguration of Mexican Railway, 194–195
kilometrage of, 196, 199
labor relations of, 200, 203–204
losses on, from government traffic, 206 merger of, 197–199
number of employees, 200
physiographic difficulties of, 194–195
reports rendered concerning, 202
Sexenal Plan, 196
subsidies to, 194, 195, 196
summary of operations of, 203
uneconomic development of, 196
RAILWAY SITUATION IN GREAT BRITAIN, THE, Josiah Stamp, 169–172
RAILWAYS AND HIGHWAYS: FINANCE, TAXATION, AND SUBSIDY, C. S. Duncan, 72–78
RAPER, CHARLES L., Transportation and Economic Planning, 7–15
Rates: for country motor lorry service in Great Britain, 182–183
for freight container service, 32–34, 178–179
for Government traffic, 70–71, 73
freight, should not be increased, 127
of gasoline tax, 81
reduction of, 121, 144–145
regulation of transportation rates, 58–60 discrimination, 61–64
general, 59–61
investment, 64–66
Regulation, see Government regulation of railroads; Rates
REGULATION OF TRANSPORTATION RATES, THE, Harry L. Purdy, 57–67
Revenue: from highway taxation, 81–82, 84
of railroads: division of, with short line railroads, 71

from passenger service, 37, 44
in France, 184, 190–191
in Great Britain, 169, 170
See also Rates
Rickards, Antonio, 194
ROBERTSON, D. B., The Stake of Railroad Labor in the Transportation Problem, 88–94
Rodriguez, Felix, 204
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 149
Rosecrans, W. S., 194

Salinas, Léon, 201
Sherrill, Clarence O., 83
Shippers: as affected by government ownership of railroads, 128–129 opposition of, to railroads, 128
wastefulness of routing by, 24–26
Short line railroads: as affected by competition, 70
as affected by Government traffic, 70–71
definition of, 68
inclusion of, in great systems, 68–69
provisions for, in Transportation Act of 1920, 69–70
various handicaps of, 71
Shoup, Paul, 83
SIGNIFICANCE OF TRANSPORTATION TO CIVILIZATION, THE, William Mather Lewis, 1–6
SILLCOX, LEWIS K., Weight, Speed, and Streamlining of Railroad Equipment, 16–21
SIMPLIFICATION OF RAILROAD REGULATION, H. G. Taylor, 49–56
Smith, Alfred E., 83
Smith, Santiago, 194
Speed of freight and passenger service, 16–18
STAKE OF RAILROAD LABOR IN THE TRANSPORTATION PROBLEM, THE, D. B. Robertson, 88–94
STAMP, JOSIAH, The Railway Situation in Great Britain, 169–172
Sterret, Joseph Edmund, 202
Streamlining, 18–19
Strikes on railways of Mexico, 200, 204
Subsidies: dangers of, 128
to highways, 77–78, 84
to railways in Mexico, 194, 195, 196
to waterways, 124
Swayne, Alfred H., 83

Taber, Louis J., 83
Talcott, Andrew, 195
TAYLOR, H. G., Simplification of Railroad Regulation, 49–56
Taxation: highways exempt from, 76
of motor transport, 12, 75–76, 84–85
by various governmental units, 81–82
diversion of, 85–86
gasoline tax, 81
registration fee, 80–81
special taxes, 81–82
trends in, 86–87
varieties of, 79
proposals of Wheeler bill regarding, 138
Tennessee Valley, cost of hydroelectric energy, 13
Thornton, Henry, 154
quoted, 152–153, 201
Traffic, railroad: freight, 14
Government, 70–71, 73
in France, 184, 186, 188, 189
passenger, 14, 37–40
gains in, 47–48
in Great Britain, 170
Transportation: ancient, 1–2
as affecting: civilization, 1–6 culture, 4–5
distribution of goods, 3, 8
merchandising, 4, 8, 15
production, 3–4
undesirable effects of, 5
TRANSPORTATION AND ECONOMIC PLANNING, Charles L. Raper, 7–15
Transportation facilities: adequacy of, 60, 61, 128
cost of operation of, 44, 121
See also Railroads in Great Britain economically desirable amount of, 166 per capita use of various, 38–39
surplus of, 8, 9, 15
in Canada, 151, 165
in Mexico, 196
Trends in travel, 37–40
Tugwell, Rexford G., 149
TURNEY, JOHN R., The Price of Open Gateways, 22–26

Unemployment through consolidation of railroads, 95–96
UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION IN THE TRANSPORTATION INDUSTRY, Otto S. Beyer, 95–105 coördination allowance agreement: costs of, 97–98
significance of, 98–99
terms of, 96–97
dismissal compensation, 96
principles of, 104–105
proposed bill for, 99–100
administration of, 103–104
coverage of, 100
scale of benefits, 101–103
various provisions of, 104
Unification of railways: advisable in Canada, 158, 167
application of, 167–168
definition of, 164
objections to, answered, 166–167
See also Consolidation of railroads
USE OF FREIGHT CONTAINERS BY BRITISH RAILWAYS, THE, G. Lloyd Wilson, 173–179

Waterways, see Inland waterways
WEIGHT, SPEED, AND STREAMLINING OF RAILROAD EQUIPMENT, Lewis K. Sillcox, 16–21

WHEELER, BURTON K., Government Acquisition and Operation of Railroads in the United States, 142–145; 51, 133, 146
Wheeler bill for government ownership of railroads, 133–150 proposed corporation, United States Railways, 133 capital structure of, 135–136
    powers of, 135
    structure of, 133–135
  provisions of: for acquisition of railroads, 136–138, 145, 147–148 for temporary control, 138–140 intended to guard against political interference, 143, 148–149 various, 140–141
WILSON, G. LLOYD, The Proposals of the Wheeler Railroad Ownership and Operation Bill, 133–141
  The Use of Freight Containers by British Railways, 173–179
  Distribution Services of the Railways of Great Britain, 180–183
———, ROBERT C. KING, and GEORGE M. ADAMS, The Freight Container as a Contribution to Efficiency in Transportation, 27–36
Wilson, Woodrow, quoted, 52